Bachelor of Fine Art

NATIONAL ART SCHOOL

NATIONAL
SCHOOL

With origins that can be traced back to 1873, the National Art School is a leading Australian visual arts institution with a rich tradition of artistic practice and generations of world-renowned alumni. NAS offers a select number of full-time programs: Bachelor of Fine Art, Master of Fine Art, Doctor of Fine Art, and a comprehensive range of part-time and intensive short courses. NAS is a practitioner's art school. We are committed to teaching the vital practical skills that form the foundation of a career in the visual arts. Students have access to over 80 eminent practicing artists and art historians, who lecture, lead by example and provide intensive, studio-based tuition. It is through this model that we continue to produce award-winning, distinguished graduates.

Admission to the degree is based upon portfolio assessment and interview.

c) English language proficiency. Where applicants are not Australian citizens, or permanent residents, and/or their academic prerequisites were not taught and assessed in English, applicant will be required to provide evidence of meeting the NAS English language requirement.

Further information on the NAS English language requirement can be found here.

Advanced Standing

Applicants can apply for admission into the Bachelor of Fine Art with advanced standing in recognition of prior study at a university, or TAFE. Advanced standing is only given for study completed in the last 10 years.

Students admitted with advanced standing are given credit towards the degree for all appropriate subjects completed at another institution, up to a maximum of half of the total credit points required for the degree. Specified credit will be given for subjects closely related to a subject offered within the degree program.

The educational qualifications required for admission with advanced standing into the BFA second year are:

- successful completion of the first year of a degree in fine art at an equivalent institution, or
- successful completion of a Diploma in Fine Art at TAFE, or an equivalent institution, or
- successful completion of Advanced Diploma in Fine Art at TAFE, or an equivalent institution.

Admission with advanced standing into the BFA third year requires successful completion of the first and second years of a degree in fine art at an equivalent institution.

If you would like to apply to the BFA with advanced standing in recognition of prior learning, you will need to submit your initial application through UAC.

Upon receiving your invitation to interview, you will then need to advise Student Services that you wish to be assessed as an advanced standing applicant and inform them of your preferred studio specialisation. NAS Student Services will assess your previous study for eligibility and make the necessary arrangements.

Please note that priority for enrolment is given to National Art School continuing students and therefore entry into second year on the basis of advanced standing is competitive and subject to availability of spaces in studio areas. All advanced standing applicants are assessed via interview and portfolio presentation by designated staff.

THE SELECTION PROCESS

Interview and Portfolio

Admission into the Bachelor of Fine Art is competitive, with selection based on an interview process and portfolio assessment. Upon submitting your completed application to UAC, you will be contacted via email by National Art School to book the date and time of your interview.

Students unable to attend an interview (interstate or overseas applicants only) may opt for an online interview apply using an electronic portfolio, transcripts of results of previous training and photographic documentation. Overseas applicants should discuss this with Student Services as soon as possible.

Please bring to your interview a typed personal statement (approx. 500 words in length) addressing the following points:

- Why you are interested in studying at the National Art School;
- What you hope to achieve from your study at the National Art School;
- Exhibitions you have seen, or participated in, during the last 12 months;
- Other cultural interests you have, e.g. films, theatre, music, literature;
- An outline of your current art practice.

The interview panel will consist of at least two academic staff from the National Art School. The panel will ask you a range of questions relating to your interest in the arts, your portfolio and your reasons for wishing to study at the National Art School.

There will also be an opportunity for you to ask course related questions of the panel.

Your portfolio should consist of:

- Minimum of 12 recently completed works, including at least 2 drawings;
- Relevant support material such as drawings, maquettes, sketchbooks and visual diaries.

Interviews and portfolio evaluations are held on campus in the last week of November and in the last week of October for students applying through the SRS System.
