Work Experience

A paid teaching experience including training in the Northern Beaches working with a new generation of primary and high school young artists. The opportunity offers flexible casual hours that can suit a working practicing artist.

Background

Established in 2016 by National Art School (NAS) Alumni Sarah Johnson, Make Your Mark is a drawing studio located in Brookvale on Sydney's lower Northern Beaches. Sarah's passion for drawing and education inspired her to launch Make Your Mark which runs fine art drawing workshops for students aged 5-18.

The Make Your Mark studio introduces primary and high school students to new drawing techniques, skills and materials in a fun and inspiring environment.

The space is fully equipped with a wide range of drawing materials and gallery hanging system to enable students to exhibit their artworks at the end of each course.

Make Your Mark welcomes 250 young people to the studio every week.
